Clear Heart

Hebrew 4:12

For the word of God is quick and powerful and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

On my way home I heard God say to me "clear heart" and automatically I started to recite the scripture that says only the pure in heart shall see God and immediately God said I did not say pure daughter. This brought me to attention as I was driving. I took some time to re-evaluate what was being said to me and I said Clear Heart not pure heart. I went to Webster for reference and read that pure means not mixed with any other substance; clean and free from impurities and I got excited because I thought God was telling me to make sure my heart was not tainted with any mixed chemicals.

Well, God said again in a loud audio voice. Daughter I said “CLEAR”. I went back to the dictionary (yes while driving) and it said clear from what dims; transparent. My spirit leaped once I saw that word. God said daughter that is what I am saying to you for you to go further and deeper in me you must have a heart that is transparent. Every one of your motives must line up with me. I started asking God why is it that You are telling me this and He replied I need for my people to be blessed through you and for Me to take you higher I must make sure you can stay on that level. My people have had so many people to do things and say things to them but messengers have had deceitful hearts. I desire for my children to be treated with great character, integrity and most of all my love.

My sisters and brothers I want to encourage you as you walk this journey to make time to ask God to make your hear not just pure but to make it “CLEAR”. Check the very motives of your heart. Be encouraged, God wants to use you for “His Kingdom”.

Blessings,

In the Spirit

When you have compassion and surrender to your own heart, you are surrendering to the hidden power in your heart, God. You are surrendering to love, because God is Love, the cohesive force of the universe that connects us all. Surrender is not just a religious concept; it's a power tool for listening to the voice of your spirit and following its directions. When you surrender your head to your heart, you allow your heart to give you a wider, higher intelligence perspective. Remember the phrase, "The real teacher is within you." Very simply, that teacher is to be found in the common sense of your own heart. Sara Paddison
